

PRIVACY POLICY

Effective date: February 24th 2022

Shucks takes your Data Privacy seriously. We want you to be 100% confident about using this website and about any information you may share with us. We take a very straightforward view in that we do not and will not use any of your personal data except where you have provided it to us for a specific purpose. We certainly don't sell your information to other businesses.

We use the data you provide for email subscriptions to send you restaurant offers, incentives, updates or other promotions relating to Shucks or other businesses owned by GWR Kitchens Limited. We also make sure that you can easily unsubscribe from any marketing emails.

In all cases where we have your data, we will always keep your details safe and we will never share your data with any third party or use it for any purpose other than the one you provided your information for. In terms of our responsibility regarding this website, Shucks acts as the Data Controller for all personal data you share with us.

To provide you with an online reservation and booking function through this website and via our social media channels, we have used the very popular third-party booking platform called 'ResDiary'. This service is used by restaurants the length and breadth of The British Isles to give diners a fast way to check restaurant availability, make reservations and be kept updated on the booking status and other relevant information.

ResDiary is a separate website platform to ours and they directly process data you share with them for the purposes of checking and completing table bookings. They are a provider based in the United Kingdom who have confirmed that they process data in compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and their Privacy Statement can be accessed here: sales.resdiary.com/privacy-statement/. However, if you would prefer not to use the on-line booking service on this website, telephone bookings can be made directly by calling us on 0141-334-6265.

If you have any questions about our Privacy Notice; policies; your personal data; or you want to make changes to your privacy settings with us, please contact us by emailing hello@shucksglasgow.com
